Lanny Poffo W. Terry Gibbs (By pin, after a Flying Backwards Somersault Flip, off of the second ring rope/corner turnbuckle.)

Tony Atlas W. Matt Borne (By pin, with a Flying Big Splash, after a High Overhead Military Body Press Lift, and Body Slam.)

The Missing Link W. Jose Luis Rivera (The Link's Manager, Bobby Heenan, was in his corner, during this bout. The Link won, by pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after using his head as a battering ram, on Rivera.)

Jim Brunzell W. Moondog Spot (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a Flying Dropkick.)

Randy Savage (Poffo) W. Rick McGraw (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a Flying Elbow Drop, off of the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle.)

Bobby Heenan & John Studd & Adrian Adonis
W.
George Steele & Barry Windham & Mike Rotundo -DQ.
(Lou Albano, Manager of the fan favorites, was in their corner, throughout this match. At the finale, Steele and crew were disqualified, because George struck the referee, to the mat, with a ringside folding chair, that should have been meant for the heels, of course. This was a wild brawl, with all six wrestlers doing their thing.)

Desiree Petersen W. Judy Martin (By pin, with a Back Rolling Reverse Cradle/ Back Bridge Combination.)

King Kong Bundy W. Tony Garea (Bundy's Manager, Jimmy Hart, was in his corner, during this match. Bundy won, by pin, after a Falling Body Splash, after a Clothesline, to the throat/Neck.)

Ricky Steamboat W. Greg Valentine -C.O.R. (Jimmy Hart, Greg's Manager, was in his corner, during this bout. The end came off like this: The referee counted Greg out, outside of the ring, giving the match to Ricky, via the count out route. This was a very good match, with both combantants putting out, to the extreme. Ricky gave Greg what for, with his martial arts moves, throughout this rough event. Greg looked good, in this bout, but Ricky looked better.)

Brian Blair W. Barry O (Orton) (By submission, with a Sleeper.)

Hulk Hogan W. The Magnificent Muraco (Steel Cage Match: During this skirmish, Hogan cut Muraco bloody, on his forehead, then the Hulk's forehead was busted open, and cut bloody, thanks to The Magnificent One. They did a number on each other, by getting rammed into the steel fence, a number of times. The Hulk left the steel caged ring, after he kicked, and punched Muraco out, sending the Islander into the ring ropes. Muraco then got tangled up, in the ring ropes, and could not free himself, in time. The Hulk, of course, won this bloody event. This was a very exciting match, from beginning to end.)

6/22/85 THE BRENDAN BYRNE ARENA, THE MEADOWLANDS, EAST RUTHERFORD, NEW JERSEY

Bobby Duncum W. Steve O (Olsonoski) (By pin, after a Knee Drop.)

Billy Robinson W. Mike Moore (By pin, after a Reverse Neckbreaker /Hangman's Drop.)

Little Cocoa & Little Mr. T
W.
Lord Littlebrook & Johnny Reb
(This match had a wild ending, when Johnny was pinned, by everyone, plus his own partner, Littlebrook, who was on top of Reb, by error. Cocoa was then on top of both of them, and then Little Mr. T stood on top of his partner, Cocoa, to add the finishing touch, as the referee counted to three. This was the "Statue Of Liberty" Routine, it was very funny, indeed, to see, all four midget grapplers, on top of one another, at one time.)

Butch Reed W. Baron Von Raschke (In Reed's corner, was his associate, Larry Sharpe, in this bout. Reed won, by pin,with a One Leg Cradle, after a Flying Head-Butt, off of the second ring rope/corner turnbuckle. Sharpe did his thing, in fine fashion, during this event.)

Wahoo McDaniel W. Larry Zbyszko -DQ. (The end came, when Larry Slammed Wahoo, head first, into the steel ring post, and was disqualified, by the referee. When this action took place, Wahoo was on the outside ring apron, and Larry was in the ring. Plus, the referee was upset, because Larry would not let Wahoo back into the ring, before the incident, with the steel ring post even took place. This was a terrific match, with both combantants doing it all.)

Ray Stevens W. Buck Zumhofe (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle after a devestating Piledriver.)

The Fabulous Freebirds (Michael Hayes & Terry Gordy & Buddy Roberts)
W.
Greg Gagne & Curt Hennig & Hacksaw Jim Duggan

(The Freebirds won, when Roberts pinned Hennig, with a Double Leg Hook Cradle, after Gordy used a Reverse Piledriver, on Curt, to set up the victory. The referee, as usual, was unaware of Gordy's rule infraction. This was a super match, with all six grapplers putting out, to the hilt. The team of Gagne, Hennig & Duggan worked well together, as a unit, but could not compare to The Fabulous Freebirds, who are in a class all by themselves, like the Road Warriors. Seeing the Freebirds against any good team is a sight to be seen, by all wrestling fans.)

Rick Martel W. Nick Bockwinkel (Rick beat Nick, by pin, with a Double Leg Cradle. Both wrestlers were locked in a Double Leg Cradle type hold. Nick thought he scored the pinfall, with a Double Leg Cradle, but he did not. The referee counted Bockwinkel's shoulders down, on the mat, for the three count. This was a very close match, with both of these ring veterans looking in great shape. Rick and Nick traded many holds, throughout this tremendous event, and had the wrestling fans in awe. This was an excellent match, between two of the finest pro wrestlers, in the world, bar none.)

Sgt. Slaughter W. Giant Kimala - C.O.R. & T.K.O. (Boot Camp-Steel Cage Match: In Kimala's corner, was his manager, Scandor Akbar, and associate, Billy Bill Robinson. Kimala did not have his Ugandan Mask or Spear, with him, in the steel caged ring. Slaughter wore his U.S. Marine Gear: Helmet, Leather Belt & Steel-Tipped Combat Boots, in the steel caged ring. Both men went at it, tooth & nail, in this wild battle. The Sarge's forehead was cut bloody, compliments of The Ugandan Giant. Kimala was not cut bloody, at all, in this vicious showdown. The ending came off like this : The Sarge struck Kimala, with his helmet, hard, sending The Jungle Native, out of the ring, on the outside, ring apron. Kimala was, also, sort of tangled up, in the ring ropes, but on the outside ring apron, between the ring, and the steele fence. The referee, seeing Kimala, in this situation, counted him out, outside of the ring. Plus, the referee then lifted The Ugandan's arm up, to see if The African could continue, but the limb dropped down, lifeless, so this called for it also to be a Technical Knock Out Decision. Slaugher, of course, was the victor, in this savage affair, hands down. Scandor Akbar and Billy Robinson then entered the steel caged ring, and got into it, with The Bloody Sarge. Slaughter, indeed, was giving it to Kimala's buddies. While this was going on, Larry Zbyszko arrived on the scene, and entered the steel caged ring, and caused his own brand of mayhem, by Pearl Harboring Slaughter, and giving The Big Bloody Marine, a devestating Pile-driver. Plus, the referee, was also assaulted, by the vicious Zbyszko, even before Larry Piledrived The Sarge. Greg Gagne then came to Slaughter's rescue, and entered the steel caged ring, and cleared it, of the vile rulebreakers This was a tremendous match, from start to finish, to say the least.)

The Missing Link W. Jose Luis Rivera (By pin, with a Power Body Slam, and then, a Head-Butt, to the chest, from the second ring rope.)

David Sammartino W. Bobby Heenan -C.O.R. (The end came, when David grabbed Heenan's foregin object. He used it on Bobby. Heenan left the ring and threw the bell into the ring. He then put his hands up in disgust and walked towards the dressing room. The referee counted Bobby out, outside of the ring. David, then, won the match, on a count out.)

Randy Savage W. Swede Hanson (By pin, with an Elbow Drop, from the top ring rope. Savage looks very impressive, in mat action.)

Ricky Steamboat W. Don Muraco -DQ. (This match took about a minute. After both men were announced, Mr. Fuji, Muraco's Manager, refused to leave the ring. Steamboat came over and protested. The referee turned back and ordered Fuji to leave the ring. Fuji threw salt in Ricky's eyes, sending him to the arena floor. The referee seeing this action, had no choice, but, to disqualify Muraco.)

John Studd W. George Wells (By pin, with an Elbow Drop, to the chest area.)

Brian Blair W. Steve Lombardi (By pin, after executing a very good Elbow drop.)

Hulk Hogan & Paul Orndorff
W.
Roddy Piper & Bob Orton, Jr. (Bounty Match)

This match had action from the word go. Both teams looked very good, in mat action. Hogan, finally, pinned Orton with a Single Leg Pick Up. Hogan and Orndorff then, left the ring, to the roar of the fans.)

The Missing Link W. Tony Garea (By pin, after comming off the second ring rope, with a Head-Butt to Garea's chest. During the match, The Link left the ring, and lifted the steps to the ring. He, started to pound his head on the bottom part of the wooden structure. The Link is one of a kind, to say the least. Garea, tried to do everything he could to down The Link, but most of his efforts didn't work. The Link is so unperdictable, you don't know what he will do next.

Pedro Morales W. Mr. X (Morales won this encounter, when Mr. X, submitted to Pedro's Boston Crab.)

The Magnificent (Don) Muraco W. Tito Santana (During the match, Muraco was bleeding. The finale came, when Santana tried to come off the ropes, and pin Muraco, but Fuji, Muraco's Manager, tripped him. Santana fell to the mat floor, and Muraco pinned him. The referee was unaware of Fuji's evil doings.)

Terry Funk W. Rick McGraw (By submission, with a Spinning Toe Hold. Funk went berserk, during the match, by verbally giving it to the referee.)

Ricky Steamboat W. Mr. Fuji -DQ. (The finale came, when Steamboat Body Slammed Fuji. Ricky climbed to the top ring rope. Ricky was just about to leap off the ropes, when The Magnificent Muraco came running from the dressing room, onto the ring apron. Ricky went after Muraco. Fuji tried to attack Ricky, from behind, but it didn't work. Ricky executed a Mule Kick, and several chops, to Muraco. Fuji and Muraco, then got the upper hand, and started to do everything they could think of to Ricky. Tito Santana came from the dressing room, to the ring, to help the fallen Steamboat. Fuji and Muraco seeing Tito's presence, left for the dressing room, in a hurry. The official decision was announced, as a win, for Steamboat. Fuji was disqualified, because of Muraco's outside interference.)

Lanny Poffo W. Jose Luis Rivera (By pin, with a Back Flip, off the second ring rope.)

Adrian Adonis W. Jose Luis Rivera (Adonis' Manager, Bobby Heenan, was in his corner, during this bout. Adonis won, by submission, with an apple squeeze-cork screw Sleeper.)

The Junkyard Dog W. Bob Orton, Jr. -DQ. (Bob was disqualified, by the referee, for striking The Dog, on the head, with a flying foreign object loaded arm cast, from off of the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle. This was an exciting bout, with The Dog and Bob doing it up, in fine fashion. Bob is still wearing a cast on his lower arm, due to a previous injury, and as usual, he is still making good use of the cast, on his opponents.)

Terry Funk W. Lanny Poffo (By submission, with a tremendous sleeper. This was a very good match, with alot of action, through and through. Funk and Poffo really worked well together. After the win, Funk branded Poffo, with a branding iron.)

Paul Orndorff W. Roddy Piper -DQ. (This match had alot of action, galore, from start to finish, with both Orndorff and Piper trying their best, to do one another in. The ending came of like this: Roddy was disqualified, by the referee, because of outside interference, by Piper's Bodyguard, Bob Orton, Jr. Bob and Roddy Did a number on Paul, and Bloodied Orndorff's forehead. Bob was wearing his arm cast, and they also gave Paul a Double Team Vertical Suplex. Paul was, indeed, in bad shape, from their attack. Orndorff was then resuced The British Bulldogs, The Dynamite Kid and David Boy Smith, who fought with the rulebreakers, and cleared the ring. Paul was a bloody mess, to say the least. This was a very exciting bout. Both Paul and Roddy looked terrific. Orndorff scored the victory, via the disqualification route.)

The Iron Sheik W. Swede Hanson (The Sheik's Manager, Freddie Blassie, was in his corner, for this bout. The Sheik won, by pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a Flying Elbow Drop, to the upper Body.)

George Steele D.C.O.R. Nikolai Volkoff (Steele's Manager, Lou Albano, was in his corner, and Volkoff's Manager, Freddie Blassie, was in his corner, for this bout. Both of these wrestlers fought like wildcats, during this Stanza. Steele and Volkoff fought out of control, in the ring, and out of the ring, and were both counted out, outside of the ring, by the referee. Blassie started this whole thing, when he struck George with his cane. Blassie also struck Albano. All four went wild, outside of the ring, and the referee had no choice, but to declare the bout a double countout, outside of the ring.)

Brutus Beefcake W. George Wells (Brutus had his manager, Johnny Valiant, in his corner, during this match. Beefcake won, by pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a jumping knee, to the back.)

The British Bulldogs (The Dynamite Kid & Davey Boy Smith)
DREW
Jim Neidhart & Brett Hart
(Jimmy Hart, Manager of the rule-breakers, was in their corner, for this match. This bout went to the time limit-curfew, resulting in a draw decision. Both of these teams are excellent, and really put out, to the full extent. Dynamite & Davey are one of the finest teams in the world, bar none. The Bulldogs are in a class all by themselves, for sure, when it comes to fancy moves, and great team work, they got it all. Jim and Brett are a real good team, also, and could battle, with the best, but they are not in the same league as The Kid and Smith. This was a super bout, with some great action, through and through.)

7/19/85 THE MEADOWLANDS ARENA, THE MEADOWLANDS, EAST RUTHERFORD, NEW JERSEY

Buddy (The Fabulous Freebird) Roberts DREW Buck Zumhofe (The end came off like this: The bell rang, a number of times, as Roberts had Buck pinned, with a One Leg Cradle. The referee counted to three, but the pin did not count. This bout went to the full time limit, resulting in a draw decision.)

Boris Zurkhov W. Sean O'Reilly (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a couple of well placed Head-Butts.)

Billy Robinson DREW Baron Von Raschke (The Baron had the painful Iron Claw, on Billy's forehead, when the closing bell rang, a number of times. This bout was ruled, of course, a time limit draw.)

Ray Stevens W. Greg Gagne -DQ. (Greg was disqualified, by the referee, because he tossed Ray, over the top ring rope, to the arena floor. After the decision, Greg floored Ray, to the mat, with a Sensational Sleeper Submission Hold. This was a good bout,with alot of action, from start to finish.)

Bob Backlund W. Larry Sharpe (By pin, with a very well executed Back Rolling Reverse Cradle/Backbridge Combination.)

Debbie Combs BEAT Sherry Martel, To WIN An All Girl-Over The Top Ring Rope - Battle Roval. (Thirteen young ladies participated in this fracas. At the finale, both Martel and Joyce Grable were giving Combs what for. They both gave Debbie a Double Team Vertical Suplex, that stunned the pretty blonde. Then Debbie eliminated Joyce, by getting her dumped over the top ring rope, to the Arena floor. Debbie then won this exciting event, when she finally flipped Sherry over the top ring rope, to the arena floor, to end the bout. This was a very good match, with great action, in more ways than one.)

Sgt. Slaughter W. Larry Zybszko (The Sarge finished Larry off, with what appeared to be, from this writer's view, a Partial One Leg Cradle, after Slaughter devestated Larry, with a Bone-Crushing Clothesline Drop. Larry's foot was on the bottom ring rope, when the three count went down, by the referee. The official, of course, did not notice Zbyszko's foot, on the bottom ring rope. This was a super match, with alot of action, in the ring, and out of the ring. Both of these ring veterans hate one another's guts, and it showed, in this rough and tumble battle.)

Rick Martel W. Nick Bockwinkel (This was another classic confrontation , between two of the sport's most talented grapplers. The finale occurred like this: Nick used a High Vertical Suplex, on Rick. Nick was in the ring, and Rick was on the outside ring apron, when this action was going down. Then Rick and Nick hit the mat floor, from this High Vertical Suplex, they were both then locked in a Double Leg Hook Cradle. Once again, the referee, counted Bockwinkel's shoulders, to the mat, not Martel's, just like last time. Both of these great ring generals are noted, for their Double Leg Hook Cradle Holds, and were both embroiled in a Double Lock up, when the official scored the fall. This was a tremendous bout, to say the least.)

The Road Warriors (Animal & Hawk)
D.DQ.
The Fabulous Freebirds (Michael Hayes & Terry Gordy)
(First, The Birds came out, to their favorite Rock & Roll Song, "Freebird", Then The Warriors came out, to their favorite Rock & Roll Song, " Iron Man." Freebird Buddy Roberts, was in the Birds corner, for this match, and The Warriors had their Manager, Paul Ellering, in their corner, for this bout. Both teams had their faces painted, also. What could be said of this match, only that it was the tag war of the century, by all standards. During this donnybrook, Gordy Suplexed Animal. Hawk chopped both Hayes & Gordy, like crazy. Another outstanding hightlight occurred, when Hayes Piledrived Hawk, to the mat floor. The Wild Hawk, also, caught Hayes & Gordy, with a vicious Double Clothesline attack, sending The Birds, to the mat floor. The Big & Bad Animal Slammed Michael & Terry, to the mat floor, also, during this brutal showdown. The Roadies then picked up Hayes & Gordy, and used The Birds as battering rams, into each other. This spectacle was a sight to see, indeed. The end came off like this: Both teams fought out of control, with Ellering and Roberts getting into it, with the participants, inside the squared circle. This was a very, very wild bout, and the referee then called for the closing bell, because he could not contain the combatants, and their seconds, at all. The referee called this bout, of course, a double disqualification, due to all roughness, and outside interference, by Roberts & Ellering. As the result was announced, Ellering, Animal & Hawk, were in the ring, and Hayes, Gordy & Roberts, were on the arena floor. It looked like Atlanta's "Southern Gentlemen" wanted no part of Chicago's "Legion Of Doom", no way, no how, at this point, in time and also, it looked like most of the wrestling fans, in attendence, were in favor of The Warriors', than The Birds, anyhow. The Birds had some good moments, in this stanza, but The Warriors showed them, in no uncertain terms, who's the roughest and toughest team around is. Both pairs put on some tremendous battle of battles, with some of the greatest action, any wrestling fan could see, or hope to see anywhere, in the world, today. Too bad that there was not a pinfall, or submission win, of some kind, to finally clear up, the situation, of who's really the better team, in tag team wrestling. Both The Warriors and The Birds could dish out the punishment, and take it, also. This was one hell of a match, bar none.)
